Test the Spirits – Is it God’s Word or a Lie from the Enemy?

January 28, 2024

Sermon Text: 1 John 4

Scripture Reading: 2 Cor 11:1-15

I believe in God, the Father
Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ,
His only begotten Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.
On the third day he rose from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and sits at the right hand of God
the Father Almighty; from there he shall come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
AMEN.

Rev 20:1-3 Then I saw an angel
coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain.

(2) And he seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, (3) and threw him into the pit, and shut it and sealed it over him, so that he might not deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were ended. After that he must be released for a little while.

Rom 16:18 For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive.

Eph 5:6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience.

2Th 2:3 Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, 1Jn 2:26 I write these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you.

1Jn 3:7 Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous.

You will recall in our recent reading of Pilgrim's Progress how Christian, as he traveled to the Celestial City, frequently met liars to worked to deceive him and lead him astray from the path he was to follow. He and Hopeful ended up in the dungeon, imprisoned by the Giant Despair who lied to them and tried to persuade them to kill themselves.

John Bunyan gave us a very accurate picture of our lives in this fallen, evil world – Christians following Christ to glory. We are met with countless deceivers who work tirelessly to lead us away from the Lord Jesus and make shipwreck.

As you can see in these verses we have just read (and there are MANY others), Satan (the father of lies) is always, always, always at work sending his “sons of righteousness” who are actually his evil minions, to deceive us with his lies. His goal is to destroy our souls, to destroy Christ's church, and to be God himself. He works, through his lies and deceptions to enslave us and ultimately to murder us body and soul.

The Apostle John, in his first letter, warns us of this danger:

1Jn 4:1-6 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world.

(2) By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, (3) and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already.

(4) Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. (5) They are from the world; therefore they speaking from the world, and the world listens to them. (6) We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Don't be Gullible

Let's begin by thinking carefully about this – do not believe every spirit. Here is the context:

1Jn 3:19-24 By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; (20) for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (21) Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; (22) and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. (23) And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (24) Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God, and God in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us.

This little letter, this First Epistle of the Apostle John, is one of the most important books in the Bible for us to know thoroughly. It is a tool given to us by the Lord so that 1) we might have assurance that we really do know Him, and 2) so that we might have a tool to sift truth from lies. This epistle by itself exposes many, many professing Christians to be false professors. And the tests it gives are very plain, very black and white.

Sometimes we watch a video blog on Youtube by a young woman who uses a metal detector underwater to find valuables. She has another tool that she can put on, for instance, a ring she finds and it will tell her if the stone is a real diamond or a fake. That is what First John is. It is a series of tests that either exposes the genuine or condemns the counterfeit.

1Jn 3:6-8 No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. (7) Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (8) Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil.

Tests, you see. We are instructed to test the spirits. Don't believe every spirit. Test the spirits to see if they are from God or not.

Now, what are these “spirits”? Why does John put it this way? Why doesn't he just say “test the people and their teaching?” Look at it again:

1Jn 4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world.

Do you see how he equates the “spirits” with “prophets”? We must test the spirits because many false prophets have gone out. So what John is telling us is this:

Anyone claiming to speak for the Lord, claiming to be a teacher of the Lord's truth, claiming thereby to be a 'prophet,' is necessarily speaking by a 'spirit.' That spirit is either the Holy Spirit, or the spirit of antichrist.

1Jn 4:2-3 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, (3) and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already.

This is the great deceptive power of our enemy. That “just the nicest fellow” who stands in the pulpit each Sunday preaching, that pillar of the church member who can recite Scriptures word for word, that woman who leads the women’s ministry in the church – every one of them is speaking and impelled by a spirit. This is the thing:

Eph 6:12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

We must not apply the test by looking at the externals. Satan and his minions, as we have heard already this morning, can easily appear as “an angel of light,” a “son of righteousness.” No, we must test by the Word of God:

1Jn 2:9-11 Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. (10) Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. (11) But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

When I first came to this church over 30 years ago, I was met with hatred immediately. It wasn't me, as I understand it now, it was darkness that hated the light of the Word of God. The spirit that controlled and prevailed in the church at that time was not the Holy Spirit – and there is only one other option: it was the spirit of antichrist. Now take care that none of us diagnose these things as mere “personality conflicts.” We do not battle against flesh and blood. No, the thing is spiritual. And if the right man had not been on our side, the battle would be losing. Do you ask who that Man might be? Christ Jesus, it is He! And so Martin Luther knew it well. Satan was behind the Pope, and Satan is always behind these things.

Test the spirits to see if they are from God. MANY false prophets have gone out, energized by the spirit of antichrist. By Satan. And as a result the vast majority of people in so many local churches are deceived, as it was here so long ago. They have been convinced that they are Christians without doubt, that they know the Lord and that He knows them.

I am just about finished reading Ann Rule’s book about the Green River Killer who terrorized the Seattle area for nearly 20 years. He violated and strangled to death 49 women and most likely far more than that. While he was doing so, primarily back in the 1980’s and ‘90’s, he went through a time when he was “religious.” He would have his Bible at work and spout off Bible verses and preach to his co-workers.

I won’t give him any notoriety by naming him, but the GRK told detectives after he had been finally caught, that he believed if he “just told the truth now and helped recover the bodies of his victims, and if he prayed, he would go to heaven.”

Now, I can tell you confidently, with no doubt at all, that there are myriads of preachers and professing Christians and megapastors and evangelists who will gladly shout “hallelujahs” when they hear this and pronounce this demon led horror of a man, saved. But the GRK is not saved. I will go further. The GRK cannot be saved. He is a psychopath, a manipulator, a deceiver, and worse – the people who teach that such a person is headed for heaven are preaching a false gospel, they are not speaking by the Holy Spirit – but another spirit which is not from God. The GRK is going to hell.

Examples from Time mag

Primary field of attack is in the church.

1Jn 3:10-12 By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (11) For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (12) We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous.

This is what it means, you see, to test the spirits to see if they are from God or not.

NOTE: “I never knew you.” These were people who just KNEW they were saved. See Margaret’s obit Praise must be from God, not man Rom 2:29
